HORRIBLE IF IT IS TRUE.

Two Farmers Burned to Death and Two Children Fatally Burned on Cumberland Mountain.

Mother McKinley Is Slowly Sinking—Conflicting Reports From Cuba—Other Late Telegraphic News.

Pineville, Ky., Dec. 4.—Willis and Tom Burkhardt, two farmers living on the Cumberland Mountain, are reported to have been burned to death by the destruction of their home last night. Two children were also fatally burned at the same time.

SLOWLY SINKING.

The President's Mother Nearing the End.

Canton, O., Dec. 4.—The President's mother is slowly sinking, and there is no hope for her. The President is still here, but will leave for Washington late this afternoon.

Are All There.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The Kentucky delegation is all here ready for the opening of Congress on Monday.

Representative Harlan Dead.
Glasgow, Ky., Dec. 4.—Representative Harlan, member of the present legislature, died here today.

The Press Outing.
Louisville, Dec. 4.—The executive committee of the Kentucky State Press Association is in session here and will probably select Louisville as the place for the meeting of the next convention, with a trip to the Northern lakes after the business meeting.

TWO STORIES

About the State of Affairs in Cuba.

Havana, Dec. 4.—Gen. Blanco says that the Cubans are nearly conquered and that the end of the rebellion is a matter of but a few months.
Meanwhile reports of Cuban victories come almost daily. The insurgents are fighting with terrible bravery. It seems that the Spaniards cannot tell the truth about the situation.

LOTS OF MONEY

Being Paid Out to the State School Teachers.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 4.—State Superintendent of Public Instruction Davidson is sending out checks today for $300,000 to the teachers of the common schools.

Dr. Hunter Goes.
Louisville, Dec. 4.—Dr. Hunter left today for Washington. He will sail for Guatemala on Tuesday.

NEW TRIAL REFUSED.

John Dugan Will Spend His Days in the Penitentiary.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 4.—The court of appeals has refused a new trial to John Dugan, the murderer of the brother of Congressman Colson, and he will now enter upon his life sentence.

THEIR "SCOOP."

The Register Has a Peculiar Idea of What One Is.

Mayor-elect Long and the others who took the oath of office day before yesterday, were sworn in about dark in the afternoon.

The Register's boast that it was a "scoop" is unfounded, as the administration of the oath had not been made at the time the afternoon papers were issued. The Register is no "sleeper," it is stupid.

THE COURTS.

What is On the Docket Next Week.

The criminal term of circuit court Monday with 102 cases on the docket. The grand jury will be empaneled Monday morning.

Quarterly court begins Monday.
Judge bishop pres. There are 61 cases on the docket.

The police court will convene at 9 o'clock Monday morning in stead of 8:30, as heretofore.

Life of Mr. David McKee.

Mr. David McKee who died in this city on the 29th of Nov., was born in Springfield, O., Feb. 8th, 1855.
In early life he moved to New Orleans where he lived until 1885, since which time he has claimed Paducah as his home. In 1891 he was married to Miss Annie Kitcheyne, eldest daughter of Mr. Michael Kitcheyne who survives him. Mr. McKee was a brother of the celebrated lawyer, Frank McKee, of Springfield, O., and was a genial, social friend and a true and loving husband. Charitable to a fault, he will be greatly mis-satisfied by the poor as well as by his rich and relatives. His funeral was under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias of which order he was a valued member.

Prominent Commander Here.
Grand Commander D. A. Broos, of the Knights of the Golden Cross of Sturgis, Ky., will be in the city Monday and Tuesday, and will be with Hope and Banner Commande-ries Monday night, and with Mecha-nesburg Commandery Tuesday night.
By invitation, the degree team of Banner Commandery will confer the degrees on a large number of candidates for Hope Commandery.

CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY

Will Shortly Be Reorganized in Paducah.

Judge Thompson, of Louisville, Will Reorganize the Local Branch.

It is understood that an effort is shortly to be made to revive the Children's Home Society in Paducah.
Mention of this society, and the urgent need for active work by its officers just at this time, was made in yesterday's Sun.

Judge Thompson, of Louisville, is at the head of the state organization, and it is understood will be down in a short time to reorganize the society.

FAST FLYER.

The Illinois Central Reduces Its Time Tomorrow.

Trains Delayed This Morning—Dull in Railroad Cycles.

The new Illinois Central time cards arrived this morning, and show but one change. This is in train No. 203, the "cannon ball," which has heretofore been reaching here at 2:15 o'clock, leaving Louisville at 7:30 o'clock. The train under the new schedule will leave Louisville at 8:10 o'clock, and five minutes later than heretofore, and reach Paducah at 2:35, making up about forty-five minutes.

Claim Agent John Miller, of the Illinois Central, left last night for Danbury, Ia., on business.

No 204, the Memphis cannon ball, did not arrive until 7:15 this morning, on account of delay about Memphis.

CURED OF BLOOD POISON AF-TER FIFTY-TWO DOCTORS FAILED.

Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

GENTLEMEN.—In 1872 a small pimple broke out on my leg. It began eating and in four months I was treated by a physician of Talladega county, Ala., where I lived eighteen years. He relieved it for a short while. In six weeks it broke out again in both legs, also on my shoulder. The small bones were taken out. It continued until 1876. In this time I had twelve different physicians. They told me the only remedy was amputation; that it could never be cured. For six months I could not walk a step. I went to Mineral Wells, Texas, spent $300.00; came home; went to Hot Springs, Ark., staid nine months—all failed to cure me. In 1887 I came back to Birmingham, Ala. I was advised to write you, which I did. You wrote me that B. B. B. would cure me, and I could get the medicine from Nabors & Morrow, Droggists, of our city. I bought ten bottles and before I had finished my fifth bottle my legs began to heal, and in less than two months I was sound and well. That has been nearly two years ago, and no sign of its returning. I have spent in cash over $400.00, and B. B. B. done the work that all the rest failed to do.
You have my permission to publish this. I have traveled so much trying to get well that my cure is well known. Fifty-two doctors have treated me in the last 17 years. All they did was to take what money I had, and done me no good. I am now a well man.

BRANN'S RAD BREAK.

He Criticises in His Usual Style a Prominent Paducah Minister of the Gospel.

Rector Reed, Rector of Grace Church, Very Properly Declines to Pay Attention to Such an Article.

Brann's Iconoclast this month thus criticizes Rev. B. E. Reed, of the city, pastor of Grace church:

"Sometime ago a correspondent sent the Iconoclast a newspaper report of the 'jubilee sermon' of a Rev.
Mr. Reed, rector of a Protestant Episcopal church, and inquired if the statements contained therein were true. The clipping has been mislaid, and I do not remember where Rector Reed is located; but I do know that his statements, so far as I have investigated them, are arrant falsehoods.
He affirms that the American Republic is the handiwork of Episcopalian priests; that more than two-thirds of the signers of the Declaration of Independence and an equal proportion of our general's, statesmen and presidents have been members of that denomination. As the sources of information regarding the religious views of most prominent Americans are shamefully meagre, I was inclined to regard Rector Reed's sermon as a historical document of inestimable value. Being prone, however, to act upon the advice of St. Paul and 'prove all things,' I began a cursory investigation. Rector Reed neglected to give the source of his information, and to save me I could find but seven presbyterians, including Washington, who were Episcopalian, and now Col.
Patrick Ford, of the Irish World, calls my attention to Jared Sparks's statement that the father of his country withdrew himself from communion service." Jefferson, whom Rector Reed claims as an Episcopalian, was, as every school boy knows, an avowed free thinker. The Adamses were Unitarians. Garfield was a Campbellite, Jackson, Buchanan, Cleveland and Ben Harrison were Presbyterians. Lincoln was non-sectarian, Grant and Hayes were Methodists, as is McKinley, while the religion of several others is unknown.

Rector Reed's other statements relative to the Episcopalian church are equally untrue. It is pretty safe to judge a church by its clergy, and the clergy of the Anglo-American or Episcopal church were tory almost to a man.

Rev. Reed was seen by a Sun reporter yesterday relative to the above criticism, and, although he had not seen the article, agreed to an interview today. When a reporter called on him in his study this morning, however, he was disappointed to find that Rev. Reed had changed his mind. A copy of the Iconoclast lay on his table beside him.

"I have learned," he said with a quiet smile, "the character of the magazine since I saw you yesterday.
I was not aware of it then, but after reading the article I readily reached the conclusion that it would be unnecessary and undignified to answer such arguments."

Rev. Reed stated that he had been misquoted in some instances, in the above, and that he could easily substantiate anything he had really said in his sermons.

WOMAN'S WONDERFUL WAYS

They are Graphically Described.— A Synopsis of a Letter Delivered by Mrs. Kendall Before the Woman's Society.

Boston, Nov. 3.—A large and refined audience of ladies greeted Mrs.
Kendall upon the occasion of her second appearance before a Boston assembly this afternoon. In introducing her lecture the distinguished lady referred to the true position of woman in society, and how her physical condition affects her social and intellectual standing. Continuing she said:

"Those who have made careful investigation tell us that heathen women are much more able to endure pain than are the women of civilization; but civilized women resent the charge that they are weaker because they are civilized. A distinguished writer says: 'If the women of civilization are less able to endure than are heathen women, it is a mere accidental circumstance, and one within their control.' When a woman has health, beauty is certain to appear, even in features once plain. With health and beauty in all their attractiveness, a new life dawns, enjoyment begins, and all the luxurious attendants of a healthy body come forth. The maiden feels the glorious possibilities of life; the mother feels conscious of the grandeur of maternity and the joys of a family. The Creator has given both woman and man perfect physical forms, and each is constitutionally equal to all natural demands, but how much women suffer, and in what numbers of cases is man alone to blame."

"A few weeks ago I received a call from a charming lady, who stated that she was suffering, and wished to know if I could in any way aid her. There is no doubt that thousands of women are suffering today from similar troubles, who do not recognize their cause so nearly as this lady did. She felt languid, peevish, restless, blue. She had headache, backache, cold feet and sinking sensations. Her complexion was sallow; her appetite feeble. I knew the cause, and I am happy to state that I was able to afford relief."

"No woman is ever seriously sick for any length of time when the blood is pure, and no blood can be impure when the kidneys and liver are in perfect order. I feel it my privilege today to state that I believe there is a means whereby women who are suffering can obtain complete relief and those who are in health be continued in its enjoyment. A few years ago a prominent and wealthy gentleman was given up to die of Bright's disease of the kidneys. By means of a simple and purely vegetable remedy he was restored to perfect health. So efficient did this remedy prove in the case of many well known men that it began also to be used by ladies, and today thousands of women in all parts of the land owe their restored health and continued happiness to the wonderful power of Warner's Safe Cure."

"The performance of the natural functions of womanhood and motherhood is not a disease, nor should it be so treated. If, however, the blood is impure, it is certain to produce poisonous effects in the parts with which it comes in contact and thus cause inflammation and the innumerable ills which make the physical life of woman so hard to endure.
I am aware a prejudice exists against proprietary medicines, and that such prejudice is too often well founded, but we should discriminate—not condemn all because some are inefficient. The merits of Warner's Safe Cure have been proven beyond a doubt, because they deal directly with the causes of all female troubles."

"The minds and manners of American women are all that can be desired but it is a lamentable fact that their physical frames are far inferior in comparison with their social and mental characteristics. The women of England are noted for their florid health; those of Germany for their strong constitutions, and the ladies of France for their exuberance of spirits; but American women possess too few of these qualities in any prominence, and all of them only in a slight degree. The reason for this must be plain to every careful observer. Sedentary ways, devotion to fashion—but above all and more than all, carelessness and indifference to daily habits and duties have rendered the women of this land far less strong and healthy than it is either their duty or privilege to be. This irregular and indifferent manner of living brings about the most serious results, and is both directly and indirectly of untold injury to the race.
The cause, therefore, being manifestly under the control of the women themselves, the power to remove it must naturally be theirs also. To maintain one's health the organs which make and purify the blood must be preserved in or restored to their normal condition. These organs are the kidneys and liver. Preserve them and you preserve your life; neglect them and you become sallow, languid and unattractive."

WRITTEN AT RANDOM.

By actual count there were in today's Register, outside of the personal column and a column of ancient history about Eddyville, just two local items, under separate headlines, and four small paragraphs, under one general head—that were not in Yesterday's Sun. The Register is indeed "exclusive" and the most arduous task the reporters on it have to perform is to copy news from the afternoon papers. A reporter could have written all the "news" in the Register today in ten minutes.

Two reporters sauntered down Second street yesterday afternoon, looking for something to write about. The chattering was out with shovels and bells and chains, cleaning mud off the streets.

"Say, did you fellows hear about that street scrapper up here?" asked a merchant as he walked to the front door and tossed a handful of rotten cabbage leaves into the gutter.

"No," was the sly but eager reply, "what's what came down here to find out?"

"Oh," rejoined the merchant with a deep "ha ha," those fellows on the chattering are the ones who had the scrape. They scraped all the slush off the street with their shovels, see?"

Second street is a bad locality for reporters.

Dr. J. T. Reddick is again being boomed for president of the board of education, and will probably serve if elected. At least his friends say he will.

Mayor Jimmie Lang informed a reporter last night that he was sworn in "to take effect on December 6th." That's sort of taking a dose of strychnine to take effect next week; it didn't do all right if the strychnine didn't insist on taking effect immediately.

Considerable pneumonia is beginning to appear in Paducah, and during this sort of winter people can not take too good care of themselves, the doctors say. Otherwise sickness is diminishing.

"Little Willie was the favorite in a large class of diminutive girls and boys in a Sunday school up here in Paducah where I visited a few weeks ago," yesterday related a drummer with a gold tooth and two stars. "I took a back seat, as usual, being a stranger. You know I always go to Sunday school wherever I am, from force of habit. My mamma taught it to me when I was young, and I've never outgrown it. So I took a back seat in this Sunday school, and contented myself listening to the childish prattle around me. Finally I heard the young lady teacher say: 'Now who can tell me who was mother of Moses?'"

"There was a dense silence for a moment and then little Willie held up his tiny hand and looked benignly at the class as he saw he was the only one who seemed able to answer the question."

"Now, just see!" exclaimed the teacher, "none of you big girls and boys can answer that simple question, while Willie, the youngest and smallest one among you, didn't hesitate a moment. You all ought to be ashamed of yourselves! Now, Willie, come up here and tell the rest of these pupils who was mother of Moses."

Willie timidly walked up, stood near his teacher, and piped in a shrill voice, "Pharaoh's daughter."

"Oh, no," interposed the teacher, "you made a mistake. Pharaoh's daughter only found him in the bulrushes."

"Aw, rats!" retorted Willie. "That's what she said!"

"Willie was allowed to return to his seat without further questioning."

The Metropolitan Journal-Republic can say:—Marshal Crouch got a postal from Kentucky, which contained this question: "His there bin a small nigger with black mare and tall and one white foot seen Nov. 21, crossed a dark bay horse at your ferry 3 years old?"

It said that the gentleman who accepts the position of city treasurer at the nominal salary of $1 per year will get mighty sick of it before his term of office expires.

THIRD CAUCUS.

The New Council Again Deliberates Behind Closed Doors.

Capt. J. M. Ezell to Be Mayor Pro Tem—Mr. Charles Richardson Treasurer.

The democratic council-elect held its last caucus last night. The members met at the court house, and it was the third caucus.

It was decided to name some local banker as city treasurer, and Mr. Charles E. Richardson was nominated for the place at a salary of $1 per year.

Capt. J. M. Ezell was nominated for the position of mayor pro tem.

It was decided to make the offices of lock-up-keeper, license and street inspector, market master and overseer of the chaingang appointees, by giving the respective officers police power. The ordinances necessary to do this were ordered drawn.

Capt. Joe Fowler has been named chairman of the finance committee, Capt. J. M. Ezell of the ordinance committee, and Mr. W. W. Johnson of the fire committee.

Mayor Lang states that the police officers will be appointed in the last meeting of the council this month.

THE ELKS' MEMORIAL.

Services Begin Tomorrow Afternoon at 2:30.

The memorial services of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will begin tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Elks' hall, in the Leach building.

Ample seating accommodations will be provided, and the services will be both interesting and impressive. The two members of the local order who have died within the past year are Messrs. Alf Rogers and Henry Lair.

Route Agent Spence Moves His Headquarters to Nashville.

Route Agent E. C. Spence, of the Southern Express Company, who has had his headquarters in Paducah for some time past, has moved them to Nashville. This was necessitated by a change in territory, or rather an addition of new territory to the old route of Mr. Spence.

Justice Stephen Field retired from the United States supreme court bench Wednesday.

Another View.

The cases of Durrant, of California, and Croxton and Greer, of New port, and the colored man who stole a mule down in Georgia bodes no good to our institutions and civilization, and serves to keep forever before the public the problem of lynching and its cause. For this growing evil there must be a cause and the sooner that cause is removed the better for us all. It is confidently firmly by almost the entire press of the country and many other generally, that it is caused by the failure of our courts and juries to do their duty. The courts, they say, allow those accused of crime to put off the case when it should be tried, and trial juries, they say, are much bothered with reasonable doubt. What is said of the courts and juries may, in a measure, be true, yet it does not follow that the action of courts and juries stimulate mobs. In the first place it ought to be borne in mind that courts and juries are properly hedged about by laws which they can not and ought not to disregard. Oftentimes a case is continued when the public think it should be tried, when the court is utterly powerless to prevent it. This much by the way, now to the facts and circumstances above referred to: As a rule, against whom is mob violence directed in this country? Is it against the rich or poor? Is it against the white or black? To ask these questions is to answer them. Everybody knows as a rule mob violence is directed not against the strong but against the poor; not against the whites but against the blacks. Now, what class of men is it that get their cases continued by the courts, and create undue doubts in the minds of juries? Is it the rich or the poor? Is it the white or the black? Don't everybody know it is not the weak, the poor, nor the black man who get continuances by the courts? Is it not a well recognized fact that juries are not accused of having undue doubts when they come to try a poor, weak tramp or a negro? And don't every intelligent man who has paid attention to such things know that negroes, weak, obscure white people and tramps, have all the time, when accused of crime, been quickly arrested, promptly tried by the courts, and adequately punished by the juries of the country? And don't everybody know that, as a rule, those who get delays, create doubts and take appeals are the rich and the strong? They are men able to employ counsel, to get delays, to create doubts and to take appeals. We have said this much simply to show that when we come to search for the cause for this mob violence we must look beyond the actions of the courts and juries. Now, what is to be gained by raising this unjust hue and cry against the courts and juries? Its direct and only tendency is to encourage and justify mobs at the expense of the courts. The way to prevent them is for each and every good citizen to do all in his power to uphold the legally constituted authorities. If the laws are not what you want them to be, have them changed by the legislature. If courts go too slow and grant continuances when a case should be tried, elect a judge who will do better. But whatever we do, it is our duty to maintain the legally constituted authority, for in that course only is there safety.

Mr. McGregor Lodge No. 29, F. A. M., held their annual election last evening, Dec. 2nd, at the Masonic Hall on Broadway. The election was largely attended. The finance committee's report was well and correctly rendered, while the annual report of Secretary Marshall was grand and showed the lodge to be in good shape and the craft well pleased. There were but a few changes made in the officers for the next ensuing year. Those elected are as follows:

Master, T. D. Hibbs.

S. W., E. H. Provins.

J. W. Wm. McGhee.

Secretary, G. E. Marshall.

Treasurer, Dennis Lovings.

A serious position is that of a person who through neglect of a seemingly trivial cough or cold is threatened by that dread destroyer of mankind—consumption. Do not neglect a cough or cold, however trifling. It is a menace of consumption, and consumption is pronounced incurable by all honest physicians. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is the best cough and cold cure. Nothing else is "just as good."

Circuit Court at Eddyville.

Circuit court begins Monday at Eddyville, and it will be the last court Judge Brethitt is to hold, as he retires from office. There are to be three murder cases, one against a convict for killing another convict, and the other two against Ed Holly and Will Cato, charged with murdering an old man named Askew, on a shanty boat for his money.

Will Serve as President of the School Board

If the Members See Fit to Elect Him—Is No Candidate However.

Dr. J. T. Reddick, who is being urged to become a candidate for president of the board of education, was seen by a Star reporter today relative to his candidacy.

"I am no candidate for the place," said the doctor.

"Would you serve if elected?" he was asked.

"Well," he rejoined, "if they should confer such a honor upon me, I should feel it my duty to accept. But I do not solicit the place, and in no wise am a candidate."

ELECTRIC SNOW PLOW

For the Paducah Street Railway Company.

It is Propelled by Two Electric Motors and Will Be Very Effective.

The Paducah Street Railway Company has a novelty in the shape of an electric snow plow. The huge machine is very ingenious, and was completed last night, being now ready for a snow as big as those they have in Klondike.

It is mounted on trucks, and propelled by two electric motors, and will doubtless attract no little attention when first brought out for use. The snow plows have heretofore been pushed by the electric cars, and were very slow. The present machine can be quickly and effectively operated, and will prove a great blessing in heavy snows.

CASE DISMISSED

Against Miss Julia Crowell, of West Broadway.

Other Business in the Police Court This Morning.

The case against Miss Julia Crowell, charged with taking $20 from James Hendon, a railroad, was dismissed. The case was left open from last Tuesday. It was intended to introduce new evidence, but the testimony already heard was insufficient to warrant Judge Sanders from holding her, and the case was promptly dismissed.

The case against Andrew Boyd, charged with stealing a watch belonging to Actor Carl Melvin, was left open until Monday, and in all probability will be turned over to the grand jury.

Harrison Dunlap and Wm. Ketchum were charged with breach of ordinance, by permitting hogs to run at large. The cases were dismissed.

Unfortunate John Ladd was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

MEN'S WRONGS.

They Should Be Looked After, declares Giovanni.

"Women's rights," shrieked Giovanni, as his eagle eye went wandering about the counter in the effort to locate the biggest and best-looking piece of custard pie lying thereon. "Do I believe in women's rights? Why, certainly I do. But how about men's wrongs, eh?"

"Will you have a separate plate for your cheese, sir?" demurely interrupted a meek-looking waitress, as she viewed with terror the 11 pieces of this condiment to which my companion had helped himself.

"Man's wrongs, that's my side of the question," went on Giovanni as soon as he was comfortably seated again.

"Look at my typewriter and stenographer. I pay her $12 a week, and have done so for a couple of years or more. What's the consequence? Young men take her to the theaters and to all sorts of entertainments and things, without thought of the slightest necessity of her spending a cent."

"She dresses in all the vagaries of up-to-date fashion, has a bicycle—$100 one, too—a camera, diamond rings, a
